

Gabriel Rendon - Board Treasurer

Gabriel "Gebe" Rendon is the Founder and Executive Director of the Financial Literacy Center of the Lehigh Valley, Inc. Gabe spent 17 years in the financial services industry gaining knowledge in various capacities including: retail banking; lending; investments; insurance; mortgage lending; small business banking; and, payroll services. Through that diversified experience, he developed a desire to impact the community through financial education. Gabe has developed and teaches a real- world personal finance course to local high school students and provides equally appropriate evening classes for adults as well. In further use of his extensive knowledge and experience, Gabe works as a Business Consultant helping local entrepreneurs establish, grow and operate successful small businesses locally.

In other endeavors, Gabe serves on the Board and as a Finance Committee Member at the Center For Humanistic Change, a local organization heavily committed to drug, alcohol and tobacco avoidance through education. He also serves on the Allentown School District Foundation Finance Committee and is Treasurer of New Vision Church of the Lehigh Valley. Mr. Rendon enjoys spending time with his wife and family, his church, watching the Eagles and pursuing other hobbies.
