

Jose Torres

Jose was born and raised in Allentown, Pennsylvania, and is a proud graduate of Dieruff High School, Class of 2005. He is a dedicated father of two children, who serve as his greatest motivation for becoming actively involved in Executive.

With over 20 years of experience working at an asphalt manufacturing company, Jose has developed a strong foundation in accountability, teamwork, and hard work. He is passionate about supporting and expanding educational opportunities that help students and schools succeed.

Outside of his professional life, Jose enjoys running and spending quality time with his family. He firmly believes that strong families and strong schools are the foundation of a thriving community.