

Mariam Hazim

Human Resources Leader

Mariam is a dynamic and experienced Human Resources professional with over five years of leadership and management experience. With a strong foundation in organizational performance, employee relations, talent acquisition, and compliance, Mariam is dedicated to fostering inclusive and thriving workplace cultures. Currently serving as a Human Resources Generalist at the National Kitchen and Bath Association, she plays a critical role in HR operations, including benefits administration, policy implementation, payroll processing, and recruitment.

Academically, Mariam is pursuing a Master of Science in Business Administration focusing on Human Resources at Southern New Hampshire University and is expected to graduate in December 2025. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (HR focus) from the same institution, graduating with four academic honors and a 3.91 GPA, as well as an Associate Degree in Applied Science in Human Resource Management from Lehigh Carbon Community College, where they earned four Dean's List honors with a 3.65 GPA.

Certified as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR) by HRCI, Mariam also actively engages in continuous learning through specialized training in HR analytics, compensation and benefits, recruitment, and leadership development. She is a proud member of SHRM, the Honor Society, and the National Society of Leadership and Success.

Fluent in Arabic and English, Mariam brings a multicultural perspective to HR leadership and strong analytical, communication, and conflict-resolution skills. Their expertise extends to various HR systems, including Microsoft Office, Google Suite, Adobe, and HRIS platforms.

Driven, resilient, and emotionally intelligent, Mariam is passionate about leveraging human capital to drive organizational success while championing Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) in every aspect of her work.
