

PARENTING WISELY

Being a parent is not easy-especially when it comes to teenagers!

That is why Valley Youth House is proud to offer the evidence-based, online, self-paced Parenting Wisely Program at no cost to parents/ caregivers!

Once you complete the form, you will get a login to complete the program online at your own pace!

The program covers topics such as household chores, parent-youth relationships, monitoring "troublesome" friends, improving poor school performance, sibling fighting, complying with parental requests, and more.
